Dear Labor Leader,

Each year at the Iowa Federation of Labor, AFL-CIO convention, we honor retired union members, living or and deceased, by inducting up to three of them into the Labor Hall of Fame. This award is presented to men and women within the labor movement whose efforts and sacrifices have enhanced the quality of life for Iowa workers.

Each affiliate may submit nominees from which the Iowa Federation of Labor, AFL-CIO Executive Council will choose the 2023 inductees. In order for your nominee to be considered for this year’s Hall of Fame Award you must return the attached form to the Iowa AFL-CIO no later than MAY 15, 2023. The IFL will announce inductees when voting ends on Memorial Day.

The recipient’s formal induction ceremony will be held at the Labor Hall of Fame dinner on Thursday, August 24, 2023 at the Meadows in Altoona. The dinner will be held in conjunction with the IFL Annual Convention as is has in the past.

It is an honor to nominate and to be nominated for this prestigious Labor Hall of Fame Award.

In Solidarity,

Charlie Wishman, President
Iowa Federation of Labor, AFL-CIO
